

Text Submission Process & Guidelines

Thank you for considering submitting to The Story Beast, a big-tent e-publication, where we strive to offer innovative and engaging storytelling to all.

All types of story-related pieces are welcomed.

We're looking for Story in all its forms—traditional, modern or melded.

- Engaging Tales: Stories, personal narratives, fiction, poetry, retold folktales
- Intriguing Knowledge: Story-centered research in all disciplines, folklore, intros & deep dives into storytelling styles, methods, histories, cultural roots
- Story-Based Activities: Activities, crafts, folk songs, recipes, games—and more

Some may fall into one of these Sections. If not, then your pieces could still be published outside these categories.

- Story Craft & Innovation - an intro of what transforms “good” to “great” stories
- Storycology - an awareness of environmental storytelling to lead to action
- Teacher Tales & Tentacles - a celebration of storytelling in the classroom
- Healing Springs - a balm for the world through the use of story
- Storytelling Fusions - a blending or “fusion” of genres, styles, or cultures in the art
- The Wondrous E-porium - an exploration of multimedia storytelling
- Journeys - a guide to travels as a storyteller complete with reflections

For our submission process, each piece is logged and read. Submissions are retained for three months for review. Section Leads go through the submissions each month and select submissions they would like to add to their sections. If you are accepted elsewhere during this three month interval and are no longer able to be published by The Story Beast, please let us know. At three months, all remaining submissions are reviewed by the editors. If a place cannot be found for a submission, we will email the artist and let them know we are unable to take their submission at this time.

We are impressed by the variety and talent of you, the contributors, and appreciate your support by sharing your work with us. We are honored to be one of the places to which you submit your work, and that our team is given the opportunity to read and share your pieces.

If you have any questions regarding our process, please send them to StoryBeastEditor@gmail.com.
